How to Be Heard in Heaven: Moving from NEED-DRIVEN to GOD-CENTERED Prayer, Eddie Smith, 2011, Houston, Texas, SpiriTruth Publishing Company.

Eddie's burden to write "How To Be Heard In Heaven" comes from seeing people stuck in what he calls the first level of prayer: praying to receive. There's a need, we pray, and God responds with an answer. What many are missing are the second and third levels of prayer: praying to relate and praying to produce. When your prayers are God-centered rather than need-driven, you will not only see more of God's power demonstrated for His glory, but you will also develop a deeper and more effective prayer life.

Igniting a Spiritual Revolution—The Field Manual, Eric Watt, 2001, Chesapeake, VA. Simple principles presented with passion to birth a spiritual revolution in order to see multitudes from every tongue, tribe and nation worshipping Him who alone is Worthy.

Principles of War—A Handbook on Strategic Evangelism, Jim Wilson, 1983: Community Christian Ministries, Moscow, ID. War is ancient. It has been fought in primitive tribes, world-wide conflicts and in Heaven itself. The Lord Jesus Christ says that war and rumors of war will be with us until the end. The Christian faces its presence in all forms but we especially fight for the souls of a world enslaved to sin. Our Commander-in-Chief will decide when this war is over. Until then we can be thankful that war has been around long enough for Christians to learn something. Since we cannot end it, ignore it, or surrender, it is of some importance that we learn how to win. In the study of warfare, great men have concluded that there are some overriding principles that, if followed, will always tend toward success in battle, and with equal positiveness, if neglected or ignored, will tend toward defeat or even destruction. Just as these time-tried principles are effective in waging secular warfare, the author presents in quick succession these same principles as the key to assured victory in our spiritual warfare.

The Sons of Issachar: Understanding Intercessors Today, Philip Lyn, 1997: Rich Wisdom Sdn. Bhd., Malaysia. Reveals God's purposes in releasing the intercessory movement – that is, to bring the future into the present. Intercessors are birthed by God as a sign, to be burden bearers, for unique warfare, to be submitted and to serve as spiritual revivalists.

These Signs Shall Follow: The Miraculous Memoirs of a Foot Dragging Disciple. Neil W. Gamble, 2013, Charleston, SC. The experiences of Neil Gamble over 30 years in pursuing the naturally supernatural expression of Christianity the Bible calls us to give us hope and re-awakens our dreams and visions of seeing His Kingdom coming among us.

Transformation: Inviting God's Presence, Prayer Transformation Ministries, Minneapolis, MN. A year prayer guide designed for personal or group prayer focused on inviting God's kingdom to come and His will to be done so that every aspect of society is touched and changed by His Presence, His Word and the transforming work of the Holy Spirit of God.
